

I am opposed to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to to air an anti-Kerry documentary on their stations days before the election. I feel it is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I do not feel that airing this type of programming accurately reflects the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
